

WALKING THE FLINDERS RANGES

Guided 3 and 5 day walks in the magnificent Flinders Ranges

WELCOME TO RAWNSLEY PARK STATION

Thank you for enquiring about our new 'Walking the Flinders Ranges' three-day and five-day treks. Each trek is accompanied by an experienced guide ensuring you get the best out of your walk.

TRIP HIGHLIGHTS

- Walking to Blinman Pools
- Climbing Rawnsley Bluff
- An exhilarating helicopter flight
- Staying overnight in a luxury swag on top of Chace Range

The Flinders is an ancient landscape and offers some of Australia's best wilderness and wildlife. One of the great walking destinations in Australia, 'Walking the Flinders Ranges' is the perfect opportunity for a relaxing getaway.

Our walks are a great way to introduce you to the pleasures of walking as you become acquainted with the wonders of the Flinders landscape. Immerse yourself in this immense, ancient landscape and discover the rhythm of the bush.

We offer a range of walks to suit all abilities. Walk to stunning heights such as St Mary or Rawnsley Bluff and view the Flinders from on high; or meander along red-gum lined creek beds and discover beautiful rock pools. There's also the chance to see Aboriginal rock paintings and learn about early mining and pastoral history.

Discover the iconic Heysen Trail which snakes its way through the Flinders to Parachilna Gorge. Named after famous landscape painter, Sir Hans Heysen, the trail showcases the secrets of the Flinders. We walk at an easy pace, giving you plenty of time for photographs and to soak up the magnificent views.

All you need is a day pack and a spirit of adventure. It's your holiday and our guides will help you enjoy the experience and wilderness.

Itineraries are flexible and different walks can be substituted, depending on the fitness of the group. Walks start each day from Rawnsley Park Station. Times vary, depending on the trail selected for the day.

Accommodation is provided in comfortable holiday units (luxury eco-villa upgrades are available) After dark, enjoy dinner at the station's popular and award-winning Woolshed Restaurant.

Continental breakfast is supplied in your room each morning.

Lunch (fresh salad and meat rolls) are also supplied, as well as morning and afternoon snacks.

Dietary requirements will be catered for.

Rawnsley Park Station reserves the right to alter itineraries depending on weather and the fitness of walkers.

AT-A-GLANCE SUGGESTED ITINERARY

The three-day walks apply to days 3-5 of the 5 day walk

Itineraries can be changed to suit walking groups

Day 1:

8.00am: Depart Rawnsley Park Station reception and drive an hour north to Parachilna Gorge.

9.30am: Walk to the magnificent Blinman Pools. A delightful 12km walk with no climbing. In the afternoon we return via Blinman for a coffee at the General Store and a stop to discover the Appealinna Ruins (pastoral and mining heritage).

We also visit Stokes Hill Lookout for a magnificent 360° view of the Flinders Ranges.

Day 2:

8.00am: Depart Rawnsley Park Station and walk to the top of Rawnsley Bluff.

Enjoy fantastic views to the south and east overlooking Rawnsley Park Station. We also take the Wilpena Lookout side trail to look down the valley of the Pound and Pompey Pillar.

We return via the Highlife Trail to see some bush-tucker plants such as the native Sandalwood, Quandong and Native Pear

Day 3:

7.30am: Depart Rawnsley Park Station for the drive to Bunyerroo Valley and the Wilcolo Track Loop Walk.

8.30am: Walk along part of the Heysen Trail before a gentle climb to ABC Range with spectacular views of Wilpena Pound (9km).

Lunch in Bunyerroo Gorge before returning to Rawnsley Park Station.

Around two hours before sunset take off on your helicopter flight to the campsite on top of Chace Range. Enjoy a delicious evening meal around the campfire and overnight in luxury swags, surrounded by millions of stars.

Day 4:

9.00am: After breakfast overlooking Rawnsley Bluff and the Elder Range, head off on the 8km walk to Rawnsley Park Station, arriving around 11.30am.

1.00pm Lunch at the Woolshed Restaurant.

PRE-DEPARTURE INFORMATION WALKING THE FLINDERS RANGES

Rawnsley Park Station thanks you for deciding to trek the Flinders Ranges, one of Australia’s great walking destinations. To help you get the most out of your trip, we have prepared a list of things you will need to bring.

If you have any queries, don’t hesitate to contact Rawnsley Park Station.

FITNESS PREPARATION

It is important that you do some walking training before taking part in Walking the Flinders Ranges. On at least two days of the walks there is some climbing. It would help your fitness to do a few hill climbs as part of your training. The fitter you are, the more you will enjoy the range of treks.

CLOTHING & EQUIPMENT LIST

Clothing – walking

- 1-2 pairs of walking trousers. We recommend lightweight and quick drying hiking pants. Denim can be very uncomfortable, especially if it gets wet
- 3-5 shirts. These can be either long-sleeved hiking shirts or T-shirts
- 1 pair of shorts Waterproof jacket. This will also be handy as a windproof jacket
- A polar fleece jacket
- Broad-brimmed hat for sun protection Thick hiking socks for each day
- 1 pair of gloves – thermal or woollen

- 1 beanie – it can get very cold in the Flinders Ranges

Clothing – evenings

- Most dinners will be in the award-winning Woolshed Restaurant, so warm, casual clothing is best
- A dinner may be held under the stars, depending on weather conditions. You will need a good, warm polar fleece or woollen jumper

Footwear

- It is essential that you have a pair of sturdy boots that provide adequate ankle support and solid soles. Boot should be waterproofed before you leave home. Carry a spare lace, just in case
- Lightweight shoes or runners will be suitable for dinner occasions

Equipment

- Day pack big enough to carry water, spare clothing, lunch, snacks
- Water bottles – enough for 3 litres
- Sunglasses
- Head torch and spare batteries
- Camera and spare batteries
- Walking poles – these are optional, but are a good idea for St Mary Peak and Rawnsley Bluff
- Gaiters – optional
- Binoculars - optional

Other

- Personal toiletries
- Sunscreen and lip protector
- Band-aids – we recommend extra-large tough strips
- Blister protection
- Medicines – e.g. ventolin, headache tablets
